

IELTS Speaking Topic - Giving gifts:

Q.1- When do people give gifts or presents in your country?

Ans: In my country, we usually offer gifts to others on special occasions such as birthdays, weddings, and anniversaries. Over the Christmas holidays, it is a popular tradition to exchange presents. On farewell days, we always buy gifts for a classmate, colleague, or coach.

Furthermore, we always purchase candies for children and flowers for our relatives if we visit them.

Q.2- Do you ever take a gift when you visit someone in their home? [Why/Why not?]

Answer: Yes, I often purchase a gift for such an occasion. I do so because it is a widely observed custom in our world, and the prospect of giving a host a gift is exciting, particularly when the facility is well received. It's just a pleasant act as a visitor and a sign of thanks.

Q.3-When did you last receive a gift? [What was it?]

Answer: That's an intriguing topic, and it reminds me of a gift I received a few weeks ago from a dear friend. Maria visited her grandparents in Italy last November, and when she returned, she brought me an Italian perfume. I thank her gift of 'Gucci Premiere Eau De Parfum,' which was costly.

Q.4- Do you enjoy looking for gifts for people? [Why/Why not?]

Answer: Yes, I enjoy browsing various stores to find a perfect gift for someone I care for. Finding the excellent gift concept and then obtaining the item will take time, but it demonstrates our concern and respect for the individual to which we are giving the gift. If the individual enjoys the present, the time we spent looking for it is well worth it.
